

BIOGRAPHY

DONALD GREATHOUSE

Donald M. Greathouse is a Criminal Justice professional with over 38 years progressive experience having served and managed in the fields of law enforcement, corrections and in the college environment. He also serve my community representing District 4 Thomaston City Council member and the Georgia Municipal Officers Association on the Public Safety and Transportation committees. I am the Vice-President of SERTOMA (Service To Mankind) civic organization. I serve East Thomaston Baptist Church as Vice-Chairman of the Deacon Board formerly serving as Chairman.

Mr. Greathouse earned his Masters of Public Administration in Criminal Justice from Columbus State University. He earned his B.S. in Criminal Justice from Mercer University and A.A. in Criminal Justice from Gordon Jr. College.

Mr. Greathouse's career in Public Safety began as a Radio Operator/Jailor with the Upson County Sheriff's Department in 1975. He worked as a Communications Officer with the Georgia State Patrol over 3 years, a Upson County Sheriff's Department Deputy Sheriff over 2 years, and the Georgia Department of Corrections Probation Division over 23 years.

Mr. Greathouse has been a Peace Officers Standards and Training Certified Advanced Instructor since 1989, Adjunct Professor Criminal Justice at Mercer University 5 years, and Lead Instructor/Coordinator Flint River Technical College/Southern Crescent Technical College over 9 years.

Mr. Greathouse is currently serving his second term as District 4 City Council Member for Thomaston, Georgia. Mr. Greathouse is the current President of SERTOMA (Service To Mankind) in Thomaston, Georgia.